SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Search and Seizure

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, place of business, computer, or vehicle to a warrantless search, conducted and controlled by the U.S. Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.

Financial Disclosure

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.

Financial Restrictions

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

Drug Treatment and Testing

The defendant shall participate in an approved program of outpatient, inpatient or detoxification substance abuse treatment, which will include drug and alcohol testing to determine if the defendant has reverted to substance abuse.

Mental Health Treatment

The defendant shall participate in an outpatient mental health treatment program as directed by the probation officer.

Financial Windfall Condition

The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, judgments, and/or any other anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.

Restitution

The defendant shall pay 25% of defendant's gross income per month, through the Federal Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If a restitution balance remains upon release from imprisonment, payment is to commence no later than 60 days following release from imprisonment to a term of supervised release (in equal monthly payments, or at least a minimum of 10% of defendant's gross monthly income) during the term of supervised release and thereafter as prescribed by law. Notwithstanding establishment of a payment schedule, nothing shall prohibit the United States from executing or levying upon property of the defendant discovered before and after the date of this Judgment. The Court waives the interest requirement in this case.
